Who we are

AHRENS & PARTNER is a team of psychologists, economists, outdoor trainers and multimedia developers under leadership of Herbert Ahrens who founded the company in 1990.

What is special about our methods?

Besides our systemic, customer- and solution-oriented approach we are working with Blended Learning Methods. This is combining elements out of three worlds to one coherent design:

- Classical seminars
- Experiential methods such as outdoor training
- e-Learning

This approach offers significant benefits:

Effectiveness

- Excellent knowledge transfer thanks to iterations and close integration to daily routine
- Combining advantages of different media
- Accounting for different types of learning
- Sustained training impact through emotionally significant learning

Efficiency

- Presence times can be shortened
- Cost savings due to recycling e-learning modules
- Low-level participant absence from their jobs
- Cost-benefit gain
