Who we are

AHRENS & PARTNER is a team of psychologists, economists, outdoor trainers and multi-media developers under leadership of Herbert Ahrens who founded the company in 1989.

Services offered

AHRENS & PARTNER are providing innovative solutions in human resource and organisational development. Our core competencies are:

- Management and leadership development
- Consulting in change processes
- Team development
- Intercultural collaboration training
- Coaching
- Incentives and customer relationship building programs

What is special about our methods?

Besides our systemic, customer- and solution-oriented approach we are working with Blended Learning Methods. This is combining elements out of three worlds to one coherent design:

- Classical seminars
- Experiential methods such as outdoor training
- E-learning

This approach offers significant benefits in terms of effectiveness and efficiency for our customers:

- Excellent knowledge transfer thanks to the finely tuned, intelligent mix of methods used
- High-level sustained training impact, thanks to easily integrated methodologies (internet-based learning forms)
- Presence times can be shortened (= cost savings, low-level participant absence from their jobs)
- Streamlined, lean seminar administration
- Cost savings due to recycling e-learning modules
- Flexibility in terms of independence from time and place
